2 bedroom

Guide price £475,000

Bargery road, Catford

Read all about it...

Situated in the centre of the Culverley Conservation Area of Catford is this spacious period conversion which benefits from direct access to a private garden. The property itself occupies the ground floor of a double fronted home and has 2 receptions and 2 double bedrooms; ample, versatile space that could be ideal for professional couples working from home.

Internally the property is in good order with a fully fitted modern kitchen which is open to a spacious 17' reception which the current owners use as a dining room. Sliding doors open directly to the patio, and a further door leads to a similar sized front reception which could easily be a 3rd bedroom. The hall splits the apartment into Reception and Bedroom areas providing a feeling of space throughout. Externally, there is a large south facing garden as well as a front garden and off street parking which are exclusively used and owned by the ground floor flat.

Locally, transport links are at the twin stations of Catford and Catford Bridge providing ample London and City destinations from Blackfriars & St Pancras as well as London Bridge & Charing Cross, a short bus ride provides DLR services from Lewisham as well. Viewings for this home are highly recommended.
