Enviably positioned in the heart of central Hove, Lansdowne Street is a peaceful, one-way residential street located just off the Hove end of Western Road.

This well-proportioned two-bedroom raised ground floor apartment offers versatile accommodation throughout. At the front of the property, the spacious reception room features an attractive period fireplace, adding character and charm. A modern, well-arranged shower room is conveniently situated off the hallway.

The main bedroom is a good size, with a large window flooding the room with natural light. To the rear, the well-equipped kitchen provides ample space.
