

Ventnor Villas

Hove

We know just the place...

This beautiful Victorian, one-bedroom, raised ground floor apartment with garden is located in central Hove. The property is West facing, has wonderful high ceilings, a private off-street entrance and is adorned with several period features. Located centrally, the property is less than a ten-minute walk to Hove Station, ideal for anyone commuting to London.

As you enter, the hallway allows access to all rooms. At the front of the property is the generously sized bedroom, which has a large bay window and ample storage space. The family bathroom can be accessed through the bedroom and is a good size. Next is the reception room, which has excellent proportions and is fitted with a stunning ornate fireplace. There is also a separate W/C. Towards the rear of the apartment is the wide galley kitchen, that is fitted with excellent storage space and provides access to the properties private garden.

Ventnor Villas is excellently positioned, with the fantastic amenities available on Church Road and George Street mere moments away. The property is less than a ten-minute walk to Hove lawns and has excellent bus routes into Brighton and farther afield.
