About the property

Guide Price - £700,000 - £750,000

Situated on a picturesque, tree-lined avenue, this stunning three-bedroom detached house has been beautifully modernised and thoughtfully decorated throughout to suit contemporary family living.

Enter through a welcoming and open entrance hall, that sets the tone for the home, finds a large reception room, complete with bay window and an elegant window seat.

The spacious, sociable kitchen-diner, found to the rear, provides the heart of the home, featuring a substantial island with breakfast bar, ample storage, and a separate utility cupboard. It also includes an additional shower room/WC for convenience. The kitchen offers attractive views of the unusually large, south-facing garden, which is seamlessly accessed via large glazed sliding doors.

Upstairs, the central landing leads to three well-proportioned bedrooms. The principal double bedroom, overlooking the rear garden, boasts large fitted wardrobes, while a modern family bathroom is conveniently located adjacent. At the front of the property, a second generously sized double bedroom and a smaller third bedroom complete the accommodation.

The property benefits from a generously sized south-facing garden, perfect for outdoor activities or relaxation, including a spacious summer house/store, perfectly suited for a home office, garden gym or workshop/studio. Additionally, there is off-street parking with space for two vehicles to the front of the property and convenient side access to the rear garden.

Located in a desirable area, moments from Portslade Train Station and all the amenities of the popular Boundary Road. The seafront and Hove Lagoon with its array of leisure options are a short distance away. This property offers a rarely seen sense of character and elegant decor within a spacious and well laid out family home, a must-see for the discerning buyer.
