

Shepherds Croft

Brighton

We know just the place...

A beautifully finished five bedroom, three bathroom detached chalet bungalow, which has been thoughtfully designed, benefiting from large garden and off street parking in Brighton.

Upon entering, you walk through one of the reception rooms, which has plenty of windows being dual aspect, whilst allowing access to one of the bedrooms. The use of the bedroom can be flexible, but there is an en-suite, ideal for guests.

To the rear is the second reception area, which then leads to the kitchen breakfast area. Glass sliding doors give access to a terrace and stairs leading to the large private garden.

Rising to the first floor, the hallway gives access to three bedrooms. The master bedroom is bright, with it's Juliette balcony and walk in wardrobe. The two further bedrooms are doubles and there is a family bathroom.

Shepherds Croft is a quiet close, accessed via Tongdean Lane. There are shops on Valley Drive for general needs, but Hove and Brighton town centre are close enough for supermarkets and bars or restaurants.

What the owner says...

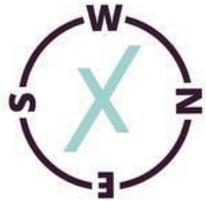

I have lived here for 10 years and I have enjoyed every minute. Waking up every morning, I feel like I could be anywhere in the world!

One thing I know for sure, is that I will never see a garden like it again. It drew me in when I bought it and my grandchildren think its a magical secret garden with all of its hidden areas.

The reason for moving is to be closer to my family, but I will miss everything about this house as I have turned it into my dream home. I hope the new owner loves it as much as I do.
