

Chapel Mews

Hove

We know just the place...

Chapel Mews is a beautiful two-bedroom, maisonette in Central Hove, with a private, allotted parking space. The property is situated in a working mews and has been contemporarily decorated throughout. Chapel Mews is excellently positioned, surrounded by fantastic amenities such as; Hove Seafront, Waitrose plus a fantastic range of independent shops, cafes, restaurants and pubs.

On entering the property from the private off-street entrance, a hallway leads onto a single staircase from which, there is access to all rooms. The upper-level hallway is tastefully decorated and fitted with an amazing central skylight, making property wonderfully welcoming and bright. At the front of the property is the generously sized master bedroom, a large sash window and whitewashed wooden flooring; the room is light and pleasant. Adjacent is the lovely reception room, with double sliding doors and a beautiful minimalist fireplace, the room is excellently proportioned.

At the rear is the second bedroom, almost equally as large as the master, the room has brilliant built-in storage space and views of the Church. Next is the family bathroom, with both bath and shower facilities. Lastly is the properties separate kitchen, a good size the room has ample storage and counter space.

Tucked away from the commotion of Waterloo Street, the property benefits from being wonderfully central and hidden. Chapel Mews is minutes from a selection of good primary and secondary schools. Both Brighton and Hove Station are within walking distance and there are several bus links, perfect for anyone commuting.

Guide Price £400,000 – £425,000
