Brighton

We know just the place...

Set within a beautiful development, hidden away in what feels like the middle of the countryside, this three-bedroom house offers fantastic accommodation and has been refurbished to a very high standard.

As you come in from the courtyard area shared within the development, the hallway provides access to the downstairs shower room with utility space and the reception, which is dual aspect and opens nicely to the kitchen area. From the kitchen is a door that leads to the patio garden.

On the first floor are three bedrooms, two of them generous doubles with fitted wardrobes, with the third being a good size single or study room. The family bathroom is complete with a walk in shower and a separate bath.
