About the property

A beautifully appointed and presented executive family home within one of Hove's finest locations.

The property has many fine features including particularly spacious accommodation over 3 floors commencing with the ground entrance hall leading to a simply superb through lounge dining room. Continue through to a stunning, extended fully fitted kitchen breakfast room which in turn leads directly to the delightful south facing rear garden. To the upper 2 floors are 4 extremely spacious bedrooms and 3 bathrooms. The entire accommodation is fully complimented by gas central heating and many original period features.

Perfectly situated between Fonthill Road and Hove Park Villas, within a 5 minute walk of Hove Park with its featured tennis courts and other range of facilities. Hove Mainline Railway Station with its direct commuter links to London is round the corner and the city centre of Hove with its boutiques, restaurants and bars is only a short distance away.
