About the property

A well-presented four-bedroom maisonette situated in the vibrant heart of Hove, with Church Street just outside your door. Enjoy the best of coastal living with the seafront only a short walk away, while excellent transport links are easily accessible via nearby Hove train station, ideal for commuting or exploring the wider area.

The property is arranged over two floors, offering a practical and comfortable layout. On the first floor, you'll find a bright and open-plan living and kitchen area, fully fitted with white goods, creating a welcoming space for cooking, dining, and relaxing. This level also includes one of the four bedrooms and a contemporary shower room.

Upstairs, the top floor comprises three further bedrooms, all generous in size and offering flexibility for a variety of living arrangements, whether you're a group of friends sharing or students seeking a well-located home.

Offered part furnished and available at the end of August, this property presents a fantastic opportunity to enjoy everything Hove has to offer—beach days, independent shops, cafes, and a lively local atmosphere, all just moments from your front door.
