About the property

Situated within an impressive period building on one of Hove's most prestigious avenues, this unusually large studio apartment has recently been refurbished and tastefully decorated to a high standard.

The flat retains many period features and benefits from large West facing sash windows that fill the space with natural light, together with an open plan kitchen and fully tiled shower room.

Centrally located, a short walk from all Church road's amenities, Hove station and within easy reach of the beach.

The property is offered unfurnished. Council tax included within the rent.
