About the property

Set within a beautifully converted period building in one of Hove's most desirable streets, this bright second-floor studio combines classic architecture with a modern sense of space.

The studio features impressively high ceilings and a large window that floods the room with natural light, creating a calm and airy feel. The neutral décor makes it easy to style to your taste.

Located on the second floor, the property benefits from a quiet position within the building while still being just moments from Hove Station, George Street, and the seafront.

Ideal for a single professional seeking a stylish, low-maintenance home in a prime location.
