About the property

A beautifully presented one-bedroom garden flat set within a period terraced conversion in a sought-after location.

Situated just a short walk from London Road with its array of shops, cafés and amenities, the property is also conveniently close to The Level, Preston Park, and both London Road and Brighton train stations.

The flat is light and spacious, featuring a bright living room at the front of the property with a large sash bay window and character fireplace. To the rear is a well-proportioned double bedroom with a large sash window overlooking the garden. There is a modern bathroom and a well-appointed kitchen offering excellent storage.

A standout feature is the generously sized private garden, complete with a charming built-in wooden seating area—ideal for relaxing or entertaining.
