About the property

This 4 bedroom STUDENT APARTMENT is located in the bustling city centre and is in within walking distance to all major transport links.

As you enter the property from it's own private street entrance, there are stairs to the first level where you can find a very good size living room and kitchen. There is also a bathroom located on this level.

Located on the second floor there are two extremely large double bedrooms and an additional bathroom. As you enter the third floor two more generously sized double bedrooms can also be accessed. This property is offered unfurnished and will be available for occupation from September 2023.
