

15 Bank Street, Malvern, WR14 2JG
Asking Price £195,000

Philip Laney & Jolly Malvern are delighted to present this impressively sized upper floor flat, ideally situated in the heart of Great Malvern on Bank Street. The property offers two generous double bedrooms and a well proportioned family bathroom, making it well suited to individuals or small families looking for both comfort and convenience.

Upon entering, a entrance hall leads to a bright and airy lounge. This welcoming space benefits from two large windows that capture attractive views across the Malvern Hills, creating an ideal setting for both relaxation and entertaining. The kitchen offers a practical layout with a range of floor and wall mounted units, space for cooker and space for a washing machine.

Both bedrooms are well proportioned, with the principal bedroom enjoying dual aspect windows that allow for an abundance of natural light along with far reaching views. The second bedroom is also generously sized and benefits from similarly pleasant outlooks, making it a comfortable and versatile space.

The family bathroom is fitted with a bath, pedestal wash hand basin and a push flush WC, catering to everyday needs.

Additional benefits include gas central heating and a designated parking space within a private area, offering both convenience and peace of mind. The property is ideally located for access to Malvern Theatres and nearby railway stations, making it particularly appealing for those seeking strong transport links alongside local cultural amenities.

Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the space, potential and prime location this property has to offer.
