

Philip Laney & Jolly

Corner Cottage Stokes Lane, Tewkesbury, GL20 6HS
Offers Over £365,000

Philip Laney & Jolly Worcestershire proudly present this charming and individual Grade II listed cottage, situated in the heart of the desirable village of Bushley near Tewkesbury. Surrounded by open countryside, Bushley is known for its welcoming community, formed by the two hamlets of Church End and Bushley Green. The area offers a peaceful rural lifestyle with plenty of scenic walks while still providing convenient access to the M5 for commuters.

Tucked away in the village, this cottage is believed to date back beyond recorded history and combines period character with modern comfort. The property is approached via off-road parking, leading to a colourful and much loved garden. A gently winding pebble path takes you to a garden room with electricity, perfect for working from home or hobbies, and continues to both the front and rear entrances.

Inside, the entrance hall leads into a spacious kitchen designed in New England style, offering both style and practicality. An inner hallway provides access to the garden and a contemporary shower room. The lounge and dining area is warm and inviting, featuring a Multifuel stove and a distinctive dog leg staircase. Upstairs, three bright bedrooms offer peaceful views over the surrounding greenery, completing this delightful village home.
