Philip Laney & Jolly Worcestershire are delighted to present situated within the prestigious and private Stanford Park development, Holland House which offers a rare blend of period character and modern luxury. Set behind a grand, tree-lined driveway and forming part of a stunning residence, this beautifully converted home provides an exceptional standard of living in one of Worcestershire's most picturesque locations.

Converted in 2010, the property boasts a wealth of original architectural features including exposed timber beams and framework, high ceilings, shaped windows, and panoramic views across the Teme Valley. Every detail speaks to the care taken during its conversion and the continued upkeep by the current owner.

The ground floor opens into a welcoming reception hall with cloakroom and leads into a spacious open-plan living, dining, and kitchen room. This light-filled area features four windows across three aspects and French doors that open onto the outside. The kitchen is thoughtfully designed with granite worktops and high-quality integrated appliances including an electric oven, microwave, four-ring induction hob, fridge/freezer and dishwasher.

Upstairs, a generous landing leads to four spacious and well-proportioned bedrooms. The standout main suite is enhanced by an ornate circular window and includes a stylish en suite shower room. A modern family bathroom serves the remaining bedrooms.

Located in the charming village of Stanford Bridge, the property enjoys access to delightful countryside walks, a local farm shop, welcoming pub, and excellent road links to Great Witton, Stourport-on-Severn, and Worcester.

Outside there is a private rear garden with a large patio area and lawn, enclosed by tall wooden fencing and borders of trees and shrubs. There is also a gate that grants access to the double garage and the front of the property. A viewing is essential to truly appreciate the elegance, craftsmanship, and tranquil setting.
