Description

Positioned in an exclusive countryside hamlet in Brinkley, just outside of Southwell, this 5 bedroom late 18th-century farmhouse sits amongst a small collection of charming homes surrounded by rolling open countryside. A rare opportunity to enjoy a peaceful rural lifestyle without sacrificing convenience; the property is within walking distance of Southwell and Fiskerton train station is just a three minute drive away for commuters.

Steeped in history and rich with warmth and timeless charm, the home beautifully blends period character with thoughtful contemporary touches. At the heart of the home lies a stunning open-plan family kitchen and dining space, designed for modern family living while retaining the farmhouse's authentic character. A log burner brings ambience, while the beautifully crafted kitchen offers a contemporary interpretation of a traditional country style, complete with an Everhot range oven. The separate sitting room provides a cosy retreat, centred around an exposed brick fireplace with its own log burner; the perfect setting for cooler evenings.

The spacious accommodation extends over three floors, with five bedrooms including an impressive top floor master suite, creating an ideal layout for growing families. Beneath the house, a substantial cellar and useful pantry, currently utilised as a utility space, add practicality to the home's undeniable charm.

Outside, the property continues to impress. To the front, a quaint courtyard garden with a generous patio and lawn. To the rear, a large garden which enjoys a peaceful open aspect and features an open-fronted timber seating area; an idyllic spot for a summer BBQ, relaxed evenings and gatherings with family and friends.

Surrounded by countryside yet within easy reach of Southwell's shops, amenities, schools, and transport links, this is a home where character and convenience exist in equal measure.

Front

To the front of the property there is an attractive courtyard-style garden with a stone patio stretching across the façade. With steps leading down to a lawn bordered by established plants and shrubs. A second generous patio area provides additional space for outdoor seating and entertaining.

Entrance Hall 2.4m x 1.2m

Step through the part glazed front door into the entrance hall. With solid wood floor and doors through to the sitting room and kitchen and dining room. With stairs up to the first floor and handy under stairs storage cupboard.

Kitchen 4.7m x 4.5m

A contemporary take on a country cottage kitchen, fitted with grey wood cabinetry and solid wood work surfaces, complemented by a ceramic sink beneath a side-facing window. A central island provides additional storage and workspace, alongside a bespoke freestanding larder cupboard and built-in bar nook with cupboards below. With integrated dishwasher and fridge. Exposed beams add character, while the Everhot electric range cooker forms an attractive focal point. There is also an original inglenook fireplace which has been transformed into a cosy seating area. With doors to the cloakroom, rear porch and pantry. Step down into the dining and living room.

Pantry/Utility Room 5m x 2m

Stone steps lead down from the kitchen to this useful space. With window to the rear, built in cupboards and shelving and plenty of room for a utility area. There is a disused sauna to one end of this room. Door to the cellar.

Cellar 5.7m x 4.4m

A traditional brick built cellar with arched ceiling and cold shelves.

Dining and Living Room 4.4m x 4.4m

A spacious dining and living area, open plan to the kitchen, with windows to both the front and side aspects, allowing natural light to fill the room. Exposed beams and wooden flooring add warmth and character. There is also a fireplace with a wooden mantel, black hearth and cast iron log burner. There is plenty of space for a large dining table and comfortable seating.

Sitting Room 4.4m x 4.3m

A cosy and inviting sitting room centred around an exposed brick fireplace with a cast iron log burner, perfect for settling in on cooler evenings. Solid wood flooring adds warmth and character, while built-in shelving and storage to either side of the fireplace provide practical everyday space. A window to the front aspect overlooks the garden, bringing in plenty of natural light.
