Teilo Street

Set in an enviable end of terrace position on Teilo Street, this elegant five bedroom home unfolds across three spacious floors.

Behind a traditional forecourt garden, the house has an immediate sense of character, with its original front door opening into a welcoming hallway where period tiled flooring sets a refined and authentic tone.

The principal living room sits to the front of the house, its bay sash window drawing in natural light and framing a cast iron fireplace that anchors the room. A second reception room provides a comfortable sitting room, ideal for quieter moments or evening relaxation. To the rear, the house opens into a spacious kitchen and dining room designed for modern family life, with bi folding doors connecting the interior to the garden and allowing the space to flow naturally outdoors. The rear garden provides a private setting, complemented by an outbuilding currently arranged as a relaxed retreat.

The first floor hosts three well proportioned bedrooms alongside a family bathroom, while a separate laundry room adds a practical and considered touch. The second floor offers further versatility with two additional bedrooms connected by a Jack and Jill bathroom, as well as a dedicated study that provides a quiet space for working from home.
