Tair Erw Gain

Set within The Laundry Quarter in the heart of Pontcanna, this penthouse apartment offers a rare combination of elevated living and refined design, with far reaching views across Cardiff's most recognisable landmarks. Positioned on the top floor and accessed via lift, the apartment has been immaculately maintained and carefully arranged to maximise light and space.

At its centre lies an impressive open plan kitchen, living and dining room where wide sliding doors dissolve the boundary between inside and out, opening onto a generous terrace. From here, the city unfolds in a sequence of striking vistas, from the Principality Stadium and historic church spires to the coastline at Penarth and the green rise of the surrounding hills.

The interiors are calm and cohesive, with a considered palette and quality finishes throughout. Two well proportioned double bedrooms are complemented by a sleek en suite and a separate bathroom, while practical additions such as a dedicated laundry room and ample storage enhance everyday living.

Pontcanna remains one of Cardiff's most sought after neighbourhoods, known for its independent cafés, restaurants and artisan shops along Cathedral Road and Pontcanna Street. Nearby green spaces include Pontcanna Fields and Bute Park, offering expansive parkland along the River Taff. The city centre is within comfortable walking distance, while excellent transport links provide easy access to Cardiff Central station and beyond. Well regarded schools and a strong sense of community further define the area's enduring appeal.

This is a home that balances urban energy with a sense of retreat, offering both outlook and atmosphere in equal measure.
