Chandlery Way

A stylish and thoughtfully designed four-storey townhouse presenting an exceptional opportunity for those seeking flexible modern living in a secure, well-connected location.

Boasting over four floors of well-proportioned accommodation, this beautifully arranged home offers an inviting blend of space, light, and functionality. With living areas thoughtfully spread across all levels, the property provides ample versatility for family life, entertaining, or working from home.

Set within the gated community of Century Wharf, this rare townhouse benefits from 24-hour concierge service and access to excellent on-site facilities including a pool, sauna, and gym. The ground floor offers access to a rear integral garage – a practical bonus in this part of the city – alongside a welcoming entrance hall and a flexible living/utility space, ideal for a home office or garden room.

The main living level is a true highlight: bright, airy and beautifully presented with generous proportions and access to one of three balconies – perfect for morning coffee or evening unwinding. The well-appointed kitchen and dining area provide a sociable hub of the home, ideal for everyday family life and entertaining guests.

Across the upper floors, you'll find three well-sized bedrooms – two doubles and a spacious principal suite with private balcony, modern en-suite, and a dedicated dressing area. A family bathroom serves the additional bedrooms, each offering excellent natural light and storage.

Outside, the home features three private balconies/terraces and exceptional parking for up to three cars – a rarity in the Bay, with space on the drive, in front of it, and a designated visitor bay. Located moments from local amenities, transport links, and schools, this is a home that delivers on every level.
