Theobald Road

Set along a well regarded street in Canton, this handsome bay fronted Victorian terrace offers a thoughtful balance of period detail and considered updating. From the moment you step through the tiled porch and into the hallway, the original character is evident in the patterned flooring, coved ceilings and elegant proportions, while the flow of the ground floor has been adapted for modern living.

The reception rooms are arranged with a natural connection, centred around a wood burning stove that forms a focal point to the living space, while the kitchen diner to the rear has been carefully designed with integrated appliances and direct access to the garden, creating a sociable and practical environment for day to day life.

Upstairs, three well proportioned bedrooms retain a sense of simplicity and light, complemented by a neatly presented bathroom. Throughout, the house has been maintained to a high standard, offering a home that feels both settled and ready to enjoy.

Canton remains one of Cardiff's most vibrant and sought after areas, known for its independent cafés, restaurants and local shops along Cowbridge Road East. Chapter Arts Centre and Thompson's Park are both within easy reach, offering green space and cultural interest. The area is well served by reputable schools and benefits from strong transport links into the city centre, Cardiff Central station and beyond, making it a popular choice for both professionals and families.
