Ferndale Street

Significantly larger than the rest of the road, this wonderful house benefits from an end plot that widens to the rear.

This much-loved home has been painstakingly improved by the current owners, who have overseen a wonderful improvement programme over the many years they have owned the house. In addition, this gem of a home has a coachhouse to the rear, with electric roller shutters accessed from a gated lane. If that wasn't enough, the property has a beautiful courtyard garden with a characterful shape from which many a beautiful corner can be utilised.

This is a wonderful house which has been beautifully maintained, including the recent addition of a brand new roof, has a huge array of benefits, lots of space and really is a hidden gem.
