Castle Green

No Chain. A beautifully presented three-bedroom semi-detached home, occupying an idyllic position within the highly sought-after hamlet of St George's-Super-Ely, enjoying charming countryside surroundings and far-reaching rural views.

This attractive brick façade home combines character and modern family living, set within generous cottage-style gardens featuring a central lawn, private sun terrace, and delightful open aspects across neighbouring fields. Despite its peaceful semi-rural setting, the property offers excellent accessibility, with Cardiff just a short drive away and convenient access to the A48 and the Cardiff Bay link road, connecting swiftly to Culverhouse Cross, Penarth and the M4 corridor.

Substantially renovated and thoughtfully extended, the accommodation is both spacious and versatile. The heart of the home is an impressive open-plan kitchen and family room, fitted with a modern kitchen and offering ample space for dining and relaxing. Bi-folding doors and large picture windows flood the room with natural light and provide seamless access to the gardens. Additional ground floor accommodation includes a cloakroom, utility cupboard, and a superb lounge/dining room spanning the front of the house, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere.

To the first floor are three well-proportioned bedrooms, all benefiting from attractive strip pine flooring, together with a stylish family bathroom

Externally, the property enjoys particularly attractive gardens designed for both relaxation and entertaining, including a private patio area, a substantial garden store, and a large timber-built garden room complete with power and lighting — ideal as a home office, studio or leisure
