Maes Y Gadd

A beautifully presented and thoughtfully extended mid-terrace home, ideally located within a quiet cul-de-sac in the highly sought-after historic village of St Fagans, just a short stroll from the entrance to the renowned St Fagans Museum and Castle grounds.

This charming property has been tastefully renovated and enhanced by the current owners, offering stylish and versatile accommodation throughout. The ground floor briefly comprises an inviting entrance hall, cloakroom, cosy snug, and an impressive open-plan kitchen/dining area flowing seamlessly into a stunning orangery with bi-fold doors opening onto the rear garden — perfect for modern family living and entertaining.

To the first floor is the lounge, two generous double bedrooms and a contemporary fitted family bathroom, while the top floor hosts an excellent principal bedroom complete with en-suite facilities and additional storage space.

Externally, the property benefits from a private rear garden, off-street parking to the front, and a quarter garage providing useful storage.

St Fagans is a picturesque and historic village situated on the western outskirts of Cardiff, famed for the highly regarded St Fagans National Museum of History. The village offers a charming semi-rural lifestyle with a local pub, eatery, cricket ground, and an abundance of scenic countryside walks nearby. Despite its peaceful setting, the area enjoys excellent transport links to Cardiff city centre, with convenient access to the A4232 and M4 via Culverhouse Cross.
