Kyle Avenue

NO CHAIN. Hern & Crabtree are delighted to present this traditional three bedroom semi detached home, occupying a sought after position in one of Cardiff's most desirable residential areas. The property retains an abundance of original character and period features whilst presenting an exciting opportunity for sympathetic modernisation. Benefitting from a private driveway, detached garage and generous rear garden, this is a home full of potential for its next chapter.

In need of full modernisation, set behind a traditional frontage with mature planting, the property welcomes you through an enclosed porch into an inviting entrance hall where original black and white tiled flooring, decorative coving and timber detailing hint at the character found throughout. The bay fronted lounge offers an elegant reception space, while a separate dining room enjoys a pleasant outlook towards the conservatory, creating a natural flow through the ground floor. Beyond, the kitchen, conservatory and convenient ground floor cloakroom provide practical accommodation with scope to enhance and reconfigure if desired.

The first floor offers three well proportioned bedrooms, many of which retain attractive original features including fireplaces, timber flooring and decorative coving. A family bathroom serves the accommodation, while stairs continue to a useful loft room, offering excellent storage and future potential, subject to the necessary consents.

Outside, the rear garden provides a wonderful balance of lawn, patios and established planting, together with a detached garage accessed via the rear driveway. To the front, off road parking is complemented by attractive landscaped gardens.

Kyle Avenue enjoys an enviable location within easy reach of Heath Park, Roath Park and the University Hospital of Wales.
