Tewkesbury Street

SHARE OF FREEHOLD

Situated in the ever-popular district of Roath, this ground-floor one-bedroom flat offers an excellent opportunity for buyers seeking convenient city living with private outdoor space.

Flat 1, 43 Tewkesbury Street is entered via a shared hallway with charming original tiled flooring, leading into a well-proportioned bay-fronted living room with coved ceiling and wooden flooring.

The kitchen flows directly from the living area, fitted with composite work surfaces, tiled splashbacks, integrated cooking appliances, and space for essential white goods. Double-glazed patio doors open straight onto the private rear garden, ideal for relaxing or creating an outdoor dining spot. A small inner corridor provides practical built-in storage and connects to the double bedroom and the bathroom, which features a bath with shower over, tiled walls, and two double-glazed windows.

Externally, the garden includes a covered side path, stone boundary walls and a raised platform area, along with gated access to the rear alleyway. To the front, the property sits directly onto the pavement with residents' permit parking available.

Roath is one of Cardiff's most vibrant neighbourhoods, known for its parks, cafés, independent shops, and excellent access to the city centre. With strong transport links and a lively community atmosphere, it's a great choice for first-time buyers, downsizers, or investors.
