Positioned within the sought after suburb of Penylan, this semi detached townhouse offers a balanced arrangement of living space across three floors, designed for both comfort and practicality. The interior unfolds with a welcoming entrance hall leading through to a well proportioned kitchen dining room, where direct access to the garden encourages an easy connection between inside and out. This level also benefits from a versatile additional room, which can be used as an office or bedroom, along with a convenient downstairs WC.

Above, the first floor living room enjoys a quiet rear aspect with French doors and Juliet balconies that draw in natural light, creating a calm and inviting setting for everyday living.

The upper floors provide three further bedrooms arranged to suit a variety of lifestyles, including a principal bedroom with ensuite and an additional shower room serving the remaining rooms. The layout offers flexibility for families, those working from home, or buyers seeking adaptable accommodation.

Penylan is widely regarded for its leafy streets and proximity to Roath Park, with its well kept gardens, lake and recreational facilities. A range of independent cafés, shops and amenities can be found nearby, along with well regarded local schools. The property is also conveniently placed for access to Cardiff city centre, with regular bus routes and road links connecting to the wider area. This is a location that blends residential calm with everyday convenience, making it a consistently popular choice for buyers.
