St. Agnes Road

Set on a well regarded residential road in the ever popular Heath district, this tastefully presented end terrace home combines attractive period character with carefully considered improvements, including a beautifully appointed recently fitted kitchen. Offering generous living accommodation across three floors, the property is ideally suited to growing families and buyers seeking flexible space in one of Cardiff's most desirable suburbs.

From the moment you arrive, the property makes an excellent first impression with its spacious tiled front forecourt, attractive entrance porch with timber detailing and original style stained glass surrounds framing the front door. Inside, a wealth of character features remain, including picture rails, parquet flooring, stained glass windows and traditional fireplaces, creating a home of warmth and personality. The accommodation flows effortlessly between the welcoming lounge, separate dining room, stylish kitchen and two well appointed bath and shower rooms, while the converted loft provides an impressive additional room offering excellent versatility for those working from home, hobbies or guest accommodation.

Outside, the enclosed rear garden provides an ideal setting for relaxing or entertaining, with gated rear lane access leading directly to a brick built garage with electric door and valuable off road parking.

Heath remains one of Cardiff's most sought after locations thanks to its excellent balance of green space, transport links and everyday convenience. Heath Park is only a short distance away, providing acres of open parkland, sporting facilities and woodland walks. The University Hospital of Wales is nearby, while highly regarded primary and secondary schools serve the area. Residents enjoy easy access to local shops, cafés and supermarkets along Whitchurch Road and Caerphilly Road, with Cardiff city centre just a short journey away by car, bus or train from Heath High Level and Heath Low Level stations.
