St. Agatha Road

Occupying a sought after position within the ever popular Saints area of Heath, this exceptional semi detached home has been thoughtfully transformed by the current owners into a property of remarkable quality, character and warmth. Beautifully presented throughout, every room has been carefully considered, combining timeless finishes with practical family living to create a home that feels both elegant and welcoming.

From the moment you step inside, there is an immediate sense of craftsmanship. Restored parquet flooring, a charming working fireplace and a wood burning stove sit comfortably alongside a beautifully designed kitchen centred around a generous island, oak worktops and an impressive range of integrated appliances. The ground floor has been arranged to provide an excellent balance of open and defined living spaces, making it equally suited to everyday family life and entertaining. Upstairs, three well proportioned bedrooms are complemented by an outstanding Lusso bathroom finished with marble tiling, a freestanding bath and a luxurious walk in shower.

Outside, the landscaped rear garden has been designed as an extension of the home itself. Covered seating, a bespoke barbecue area, porcelain terraces, mature planting and further seating areas create a series of inviting outdoor spaces, whilst the detached garage, driveway parking and extensive external lighting and power provide practicality to match the style.

Heath remains one of Cardiff's most desirable residential districts, favoured for its tree lined streets, excellent schools and superb transport connections. Roath Park Lake is within easy reach, offering beautiful walks and recreational facilities, whilst Heath Park provides expansive green space alongside the University Hospital of Wales. The area enjoys a superb selection of independent cafés, restaurants and local shops, together with convenient access to Cardiff city centre, the A48, M4 motorway and Heath High Level and Heath Low Level.
