Merthyr Road

Set within the historic village of Tongwynlais, this thoughtfully arranged terraced home offers a considered balance of character and practicality, extending across three floors to create a flexible and engaging living environment.

The ground floor unfolds with a welcoming entrance hall leading into a living room centred around a wood burning stove, creating a natural focal point for quieter evenings. To the rear, the kitchen is bathed in natural light from skylights above and French doors that open directly onto the garden, establishing a strong connection between indoor and outdoor spaces.

Upstairs, the first floor provides three well proportioned bedrooms alongside a bathroom, while the second floor introduces a more adaptable layout with an open study or sitting area leading through to the principal bedroom, offering a degree of separation suited to modern living.

Tongwynlais is a village rich in heritage, set on the northern edge of Cardiff and framed by woodland and the Taff Trail. Castell Coch sits prominently above the village, while nearby walks through Fforest Fawr and along the River Taff offer immediate access to green space. Local amenities include independent shops, cafés and public houses, with further facilities in Whitchurch and the wider Cardiff area. The property is well placed for access to the A470 and M4, providing convenient routes into Cardiff city centre and beyond. Well regarded local schools and regular public transport links further enhance its appeal.
