Blackberry Way

Located in the sought-after residential area of Pontprennau, this three-storey semi-detached townhouse offers flexible and well-balanced accommodation, ideally suited to modern family living. The property is approached via a driveway providing off-road parking and an electric vehicle charging point, with a neat frontage leading to a welcoming entrance porch.

The ground floor has been thoughtfully arranged to provide adaptable living space, including a converted garage currently utilised as a bedroom or home office, a separate playroom overlooking the rear, which can also be used as another bedroom, and a useful utility room housing the combi boiler with direct access to the garden. A downstairs shower room adds further practicality.

To the first floor, a bright and generously proportioned living room enjoys a Juliet balcony to the front, allowing natural light to flow through the space. The kitchen and dining room is positioned to the rear, fitted with a range of units, integrated appliances and ample space for family dining.

The second floor hosts three bedrooms, including a principal bedroom with fitted storage and en-suite shower room, alongside a family bathroom and additional bedrooms, offering versatility for growing families or home working requirements.

Pontprennau is a well-regarded suburb of Cardiff, popular for its convenient access to the A48 and M4, making it ideal for commuters. The area benefits from a range of local amenities including supermarkets, cafés, and leisure facilities, while nearby Llanishen and Pentwyn provide further shopping options. Well-regarded primary and secondary schooling are within easy reach, and there are pleasant green spaces and walking routes nearby. Regular bus links provide straightforward access to Cardiff City Centre, which lies approximately a short drive away, offering a wide selection of retail, dining and cultural attractions.
