Heol Lewis

Set on the ground floor of a well-established residential development in Rhiwbina, this two-bedroom flat offers generously proportioned accommodation, a private garden and parking, all within easy reach of some of north Cardiff's most popular neighbourhoods. Offered with no onward chain, the property has been carefully maintained and is very clean throughout, while also presenting an excellent opportunity for a new owner to modernise the interiors to their own taste.

The layout has a pleasing sense of separation between the living and sleeping spaces. An entrance hallway leads into a fitted kitchen overlooking the inner courtyard, while the lounge sits beyond and enjoys windows towards the gardens and side of the development. An electric fireplace provides a focal point, complemented by coving and wall lighting. A second hallway leads from the lounge to two bedrooms and the bathroom. Both bedrooms are comfortably proportioned, with the second particularly useful for its extensive fitted wardrobe storage.

Outside, the setting adds considerably to the appeal. A communal courtyard sits to the rear of the building, with paved areas, lawn and established trees, while the flat also benefits from its own enclosed paved garden, providing a manageable outdoor space for seating and planting. Parking is positioned alongside the development, with several routes providing convenient access around the building.

Heol Lewis is well positioned for Rhiwbina, Birchgrove and Whitchurch, placing independent shops, cafés, everyday amenities and green spaces within convenient reach. Rhiwbina railway station is approximately 1.2 km away, providing services towards Cardiff city centre, with Birchgrove and Whitchurch stations also nearby. Cardiff Council also provides access to local school catchment information for families
