Heathwood Road

Set along the well regarded Heathwood Road, this attractive semi detached home offers a thoughtful balance of period detail and practical living, arranged across two floors and complemented by a generous garden setting. The interiors retain a sense of character with parquet flooring, original fireplaces, and bay fronted rooms that draw in natural light throughout the day.

The ground floor unfolds from a welcoming hallway into two reception rooms, each with its own distinct atmosphere, providing flexible spaces for both everyday living and more formal occasions. The kitchen sits to the rear with access to a useful pantry and adjoining utility and cloakroom, creating a layout that supports the rhythm of daily life with ease.

Upstairs, three bedrooms are arranged around a central landing, with the principal rooms enjoying original fireplaces and open outlooks. A family bathroom completes the accommodation.

Outside, the gardens are a particular feature, with a well proportioned rear space offering areas for dining, planting, and relaxation, alongside useful outbuildings and rear access. The front garden provides the added benefit of off road parking.

Heath is widely regarded as one of Cardiff's most established residential areas, known for its tree lined streets and strong sense of community. The property is within easy reach of Heath Park, a much loved green space ideal for walking and recreation, as well as the University Hospital of Wales. Local amenities include independent shops, cafes, and everyday conveniences, while nearby railway stations provide direct connections into Cardiff city centre. A selection of well regarded schools serves the area, making it a practical choice for a range of buyers.

Storm Porch and Entrance Hall

Living Room

Positioned to the front, this room benefits from a double glazed bay window, parquet flooring, picture rail, and a radiator. A fireplace with wooden mantel, tiled insert, and marble hearth provides a focal point, currently fitted with a gas fire.

Second Reception Room
