

Fields Park Road

NEWPORT, NP20 5BA

GUIDE PRICE £475,000

Fields Park Road

Positioned on a handsome period street, this elegant semi-detached home offers generous accommodation arranged over three floors and retains a wealth of original character throughout. High ceilings, sash windows, tiled floors and fireplaces create a warm and inviting atmosphere, while the layout offers both flexibility and excellent natural light.

The ground floor provides a series of well proportioned reception rooms, allowing for both formal entertaining and everyday living, with the kitchen positioned to the rear opening onto the garden. The upper floors offer five double bedrooms and two bathrooms, making the house well suited to family life, guest accommodation or working from home. There is also clear potential to reconfigure the kitchen and dining space should a buyer wish to create a larger open plan arrangement.

Fields Park Road is one of Newport's most established residential addresses, located close to Allt-Yr-Yn Nature Reserve and within walking distance of Newport city centre. The area offers a wide range of amenities including independent shops, cafes, schools and leisure facilities, along with excellent road and rail connections. Newport railway station provides direct services to Cardiff, Bristol and London Paddington, making this an ideal location for commuters. The property is also within walking distance to Ridgeway Viewpoints.
