Llwyneinion Fechan , Dyffryn Ardudwy, LL44 2HX

Croeso i Llwyneinion Fechan - a traditional Welsh farmhouse, boasting panoramic sea views and positioned in a peaceful yet highly accessible location to the east of Dyffryn Ardudwy. This unique property offers a fresh lifestyle opportunity in a breathtaking rural setting.

The property features a characterful farmhouse, a range of traditional outbuildings, and excellent quality arable and permanent pasture land. Together, these elements present a rare opportunity for anyone seeking to embrace a rural way of life, develop a sustainable enterprise, or explore agri-tourism or diversification potential. Outbuildings and approximately 10 acres of land surrounding the farmhouse are included within the price.

Historically operated as a livestock farm, the land at Llwyneinion Fechan has supported up to 450 head of cattle, with scope to expand further. The land is primarily used for grass-based cropping, including silage, hay, and grazing, making it ideally suited for both livestock and arable farming.
Nb. Additional land acreage (up to approximately 40 acres) is available by separate negotiation,

This is a rare chance to acquire a beautiful farmhouse with substantial agricultural potential in one of Wales's most scenic locations.
