LOCATION

Talybont is known for its friendly atmosphere and strong community spirit, making it a wonderful place to be.. It is a coastal village located on the western fringe of the Snowdonia National Park. Named after the very old road bridge in the centre of the village which goes over the Ysgethin river, the area has miles of glorious sandy beaches, and rugged and remote woodland, with rivers and waterfalls. Talybont also has a restaurant, public house and a railway station with links to the local towns of Barmouth and Porthmadog, and extending to the Midlands and beyond. The nearby village of Dyffryn Ardudwy provides very good local amenities including a school, village hall, shops and petrol station.
