Madony Cae Eithin, Penrhyndeudraeth, LL48 6EF

Nestled in the tranquil village of Minffordd, Penrhyndeudraeth, this charming detached family home offers a delightful retreat for those seeking peace and comfort. Spanning an impressive 1,098 square feet, the property features three well-proportioned bedrooms, making it ideal for families or those looking for extra space.

The property layout is currently 'upside down' with three bedrooms and a bathroom to the ground floor and an open plan lounge/diner and living room to the first floor. Additionally, the home presents an exciting opportunity for improvement, by renovating the ground floor storage room into another bedroom and perhaps extending over the garage, allowing new owners to personalise and enhance the property to their taste.

Situated in a quiet location, this home is just a stone's throw away from the enchanting Portmeirion, known for its stunning architecture and beautiful gardens. This proximity offers a unique blend of serene living with easy access to local attractions and amenities.

Whether you are looking to settle down in a peaceful environment or seeking a project to make your own, this detached family home in Minffordd is a wonderful opportunity not to be missed.
