Reading, Reading, Berkshire RG1 7NG

Chain Free £1,000,000

Located only moments from the center of Reading is this unique opportunity to acquire this three story Grade II listed Gothic Revival villa that retains numerous period features, built in the mid 1800's and is set within generous private walled grounds. Carlisle House offers approximately 4700 sqft of space including a large basement and was originally constructed as a manse and then converted into four apartments in the 1930s. On the ground floor there are four receptions and several other rooms. On the upper floors are seven bedrooms and space for several bathrooms. The property would make a fantastic family home or have development potential. Planning consent (Planning number 220486) was granted in 2023 (now lapsed) for the conversion to four 1-bedroom apartments and two 2-bedroom apartments. The property is currently registered as four large flats with their own tile under the freehold title and their own council tax band. To appreciate the space on offer call now to view.
