Tucked away behind gates just off Bolton Street in central Brixham, this stylish two-bedroom mews house offers an opportunity to acquire a modern, low-maintenance investment property in a peaceful yet highly convenient location. Built in 2014 to contemporary standards, the home is set within a charming courtyard development, providing privacy and a quiet retreat just moments from the town's vibrant harbour, shops, and amenities.

The property has been constructed to meet efficient modern building regulations and is heated via an eco-friendly air source heat pump system, offering cost-effective and sustainable living for tenants. Its clean, contemporary design, practical layout, and energy efficiency make it an attractive option for long-term rental, with strong ongoing appeal in Brixham's active rental market.

Internally, the mews house provides well-proportioned accommodation with a bright open-plan living area, modern kitchen, two bedrooms, and a contemporary bathroom. The property is well maintained and ready for continued letting without the need for immediate works—ideal for investors looking for a hands-off, hassle-free addition to their portfolio, or for owner occupation.

Currently let and generating a solid yield, the property offers instant income with the benefit of a reliable tenant in situ. Its central yet tucked-away position, along with low running and maintenance costs, makes this a particularly appealing opportunity for landlords seeking long-term value and stability.

Additionally, other similar properties within the mews development are also available, offering the chance to acquire multiple units in one attractive, purpose-built setting. Viewings are by appointment and early interest is encouraged.
