Set along the characterful Higher Street in the heart of Brixham, just a short stroll from the bustling harbour and an array of independent shops, cafes and restaurants. Cockleshell Cottage is beautifully finished and offers a great opportunity to own a slice of the town's rich history. Blending period charm with modern comfort, the property has been sympathetically updated to create a home that feels both luxurious and welcoming, it offers three bedrooms, a stylish courtyard garden and no onward chain.

The ground floor is thoughtfully arranged, with a cosy lounge to the front, perfect for relaxing evenings, and a generously proportioned kitchen diner that is bathed in natural light and designed for both everyday living and entertaining. At the rear, a stylish and contemporary shower room continues the high-quality finish seen throughout. Outside, the delightful courtyard garden provides a private space for morning coffee, al fresco suppers or summer barbecues, all with a sense of intimacy and style.

Upstairs, two well-presented double bedrooms reflect the property's elegant interior, offering both comfort and charm. A further staircase rises to the spacious third bedroom set within the loft, where a southerly open aspect brings in abundant light and creates a peaceful retreat with views across the town.

The property benefits from gas central heating and a carefully considered balance of historic character with modern convenience, this cottage is suited to a wide range of buyers—whether as a first home, a stylish investment or a generously proportioned holiday retreat.

Brixham's waterfront, with its picturesque Breakwater, Shoalstone Beach and scenic walks at Freshwater Quarry, is right on the doorstep, making this property perfectly placed to enjoy all the charm of coastal living. There are ample nearby on-street parking options available and central car parks provide practicality to complement the lifestyle.

This is a beautifully finished, character-filled home in one of Brixham's most desirable locations, ready to move straight into and enjoy. No onward chain.
