Located in a quiet cul-de-sac of Summerlands Close, this detached split-level bungalow offers a serene lifestyle with open views towards Southdown Hill. Local shops on Summercourt Way are conveniently nearby, and Brixham's charming town and harbour are just 1.5 miles away. This superbly presented home enjoys the peace and quiet of its surroundings while remaining close to essential amenities.

Inside, the property is meticulously maintained and features a spacious lounge with a picture window providing delightful views of the hills. The modern kitchen boasts integrated appliances and stylish cream gloss units with quartz effect worktops. The main floor also includes a large, contemporary shower room with a rainfall shower. The top floor houses two generous bedrooms, with the principal room offering built-in wardrobes and panoramic views.

The exterior of the bungalow is just as impressive, with a beautifully landscaped back garden that includes a large patio area, a central lawn, a decked area, and stunning flower beds. The front of the property features driveway parking and gated access to the rear. The garden's various sections create perfect spots for relaxation and outdoor entertainment, enhanced by mature plants, shrubs, and even a Japanese zen garden.

Energy efficiency is a key feature of this home, equipped with solar panels on the front elevation that help reduce energy costs. There is also a smart ensuite WC to the guest suite. These additions make the home not only comfortable but also practical for modern living.

The lower level of the bungalow offers a potential annex accommodation, with it's own front door making perfect for a dependent relative, older child, or as an Airbnb rental. This open-plan space features living, dining, and bedroom areas with French doors leading to the back garden, ensuring privacy and independence. With ample storage and modern amenities, this annex provides versatile living options.
