Situated on the sought-after Station Hill in Brixham, this beautifully presented three-bedroom Victorian house blends timeless character with a bright and inviting interior. With its double-fronted façade and elevated position, the property enjoys lovely open views across the town and is ideally located just a short stroll from the harbour and town centre amenities.

Inside, the home is full of charm and light. The ground floor features a spacious lounge with a striking feature fireplace, creating a cosy yet elegant living space. Across the hall, an open-plan kitchen/diner offers a perfect spot for relaxed family meals or entertaining, complete with a pretty window seat and a well-equipped kitchen boasting generous cupboard and worktop space. To the rear, a separate utility area and a convenient downstairs WC add to the practicality of the layout.

Upstairs, the property continues to impress with three well-proportioned bedrooms. The master suite to the front is particularly spacious, while a further double and a cosy single bedroom to the rear offer flexibility for families, guests or home working. A good-sized family bathroom completes the first-floor accommodation.

The standout feature of this property is undoubtedly the rear garden. Arranged over two levels, it offers a sociable lower patio and BBQ area perfect for summer gatherings, and a pretty, elevated lawn that enjoys superb South-facing views across Brixham's rooftops. Indeed, there is also scope to alter this rooftop, with planning historically approved for a loft conversion in the spacious attic.

With uPVC double glazing, gas central heating and offered with no onward chain, this characterful home would make an ideal permanent residence, lock-up-and-leave holiday retreat, or a fantastic commercial holiday let opportunity. While there is no private parking, street parking is available nearby.
