Deceptively spacious and bursting with potential, this three-bedroom semi-detached house is ideally situated on the sought-after Penn Lane. Conveniently located roughly a mile from the vibrant heart of Brixham and its picturesque harbour, this property also enjoys the benefit of a local shop within easy walking distance on Castor Road. Spanning three floors, this home offers a generous layout perfect for family living or entertaining.

Upon entering, you are welcomed by a spacious entrance hall that sets the tone for the ample living space within. The lounge, featuring a charming bay window, flows seamlessly into the dining room, which opens to a rear porch/conservatory. Adjacent to this, the study provides a perfect home office environment. The well-appointed kitchen boasts white units and stone-effect worktops, with direct access to the low-maintenance back garden - ideal for outdoor dining and relaxation.

The first floor hosts two sizeable double bedrooms, both equipped with built-in wardrobes, and a spacious shower room. Additionally, there is a cosy third bedroom/snug that features paddle stairs leading to the impressive attic room. This top-floor space, with its two Velux windows, offers flexible usage options, whether as a bedroom, hobby room, or additional living space, albeit with restricted headroom.

Externally, the property benefits from driveway parking for up to three cars at the front, ensuring convenience for multiple vehicles. The rear garden, designed for minimal upkeep, offers a sunny, private patio area perfect for leisure or entertaining. With its prime location, extensive living space, and potential for personalisation, this property represents a fantastic opportunity for prospective buyers.
