£175,000

E&H Edkins Holmes
ESTATE AGENTS

A spacious and characterful three-bedroom end terrace property, offering generously proportioned accommodation with a wealth of traditional features and far-reaching views to the front.

The property retains plenty of charm and character throughout, with exposed beams, stone mullion windows and an attractive stone fireplace creating a warm and individual feel. These traditional features sit comfortably alongside more recent improvements, with the windows and external doors having been updated earlier this year.

The accommodation, in brief, comprises: a welcoming entrance hall leading through to a spacious lounge, where the feature stone fireplace provides an attractive focal point to the room. The kitchen offers a good amount of fitted storage and preparation space, while access from the ground floor leads down to a useful cellar, providing valuable additional storage.

To the first floor are three well-proportioned bedrooms, including two generous doubles and a good-sized single bedroom, together with the house bathroom. The front-facing rooms take full advantage of the impressive far-reaching views across the surrounding area.

Located in the popular village of Stainland, the property is conveniently placed for a range of local amenities, well-regarded schools and countryside walks. Nearby West Vale provides a further excellent selection of independent shops, cafés, bars and restaurants, while convenient access to the M62 motorway network makes the location particularly well suited to those travelling towards Leeds and Manchester.

Combining generous accommodation, attractive period features and impressive views, this is a home with plenty of individual character which is likely to appeal to a variety of purchasers.
