Woodlands is a unique four-bedroom semi-detached residence, lovingly owned by the same family for over 40 years. Built in the 1920s, this characterful home has been thoughtfully designed to take full advantage of the stunning woodland views to the rear, offering a peaceful and private setting whilst remaining conveniently located close to Calderdale Royal Hospital and Halifax town centre.

The spacious accommodation includes two generous reception rooms, a conservatory, and a dining kitchen, providing versatile living space ideal for both family life and entertaining. To the first floor are three double bedrooms together with a single bedroom, currently utilised as a home office.

Externally, the property enjoys extensive tiered gardens incorporating artificial lawned areas, traditional lawns, and mature shrubbery, creating a superb outdoor environment with a high degree of privacy. There are also two garages – a single garage positioned on the front driveway and a larger double garage to the rear, accessed from Copley.

Of particular interest to purchasers and developers alike is the potential offered by the generous plot. With neighbouring properties having successfully sold parts of their gardens as building plots, the current owner has explored a similar opportunity and has obtained indicative plans for a detached dwelling, although formal planning permission has not yet been sought.

Woodlands presents a rare opportunity to acquire a substantial period home with exceptional views, extensive gardens, and exciting future potential in one of Halifax's most sought-after residential locations.
