DESCRIPTION

The suite comprises part of Headrow House a tastefully and sympathetically refurbished canal side warehouse in a convenient location on the fringe of Huddersfield town centre.

The suite benefits from its own independent street access and is currently partitioned to form a reception and waiting room with separate boardroom off and an inner general office including kitchen facilities and its own WC facilities.

Tenants are permitted use of the high quality, shared toilet facilities within the building.

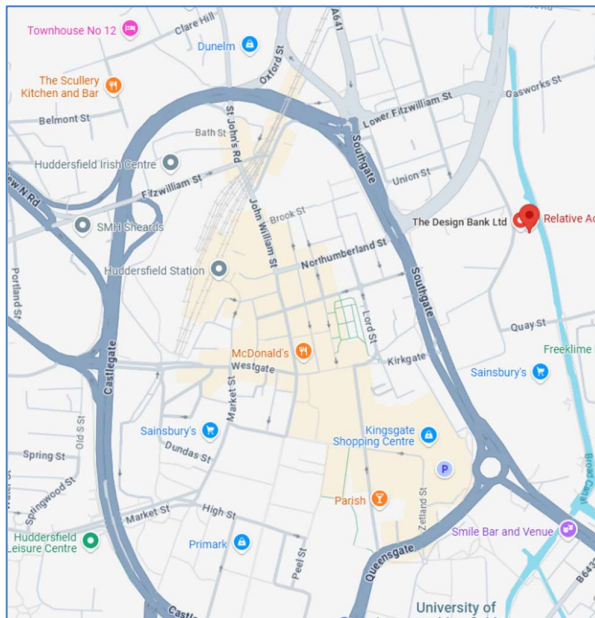

The demise will include the forecourt area which is suitable for parking two vehicles.

LOCATION

The property is positioned on the fringe of Huddersfield town centre within walking distance of Huddersfield Railway Station and Bus Station.

Huddersfield is a university town having a population of approximately 142,000, being the administrative centre of the Kirklees Local Authority area, in addition to the police station, the County Court, Sainsburys supermarket and being on the south-western edge of the town centre.

The town benefits from good connectivity, being accessible to the M62 at Junctions 23 and 24 in addition to having excellent train links on the TransPennine express line between Leeds and Manchester.
