UNEXPECTEDLY BACK ON THE MARKET

Providing an ideal opportunity for development, is this 3/4 bedroom stone built detached cottage.

Set in greenbelt countryside, the property at present provides a substantial detached property with adjacent former wash house, in total the buildings extend to over 2,250 sqft. Offering an array of development opportunities in that the property could be renovated to provide one substantial family home, or alternatively demolition of the existing buildings to provide a select development of detached properties (subject to local authority approval).

A pre application has been submitted to Kirklees and has received a favourable response for this development, copies of which can be provided on request.

Seldom do opportunities of this nature appear on the open market to create a select cul-de-sac development.

The property is handily located for both J.25 and J.26 of the M62 motorway network and is also within 1.5 miles from Mirfield town centre, which provides rail links to both Huddersfield, Leeds, Manchester and London.
