£125,000

bramleys

Situated within close proximity to Halifax town centre, this two-bedroom front back-to-back terraced property presents an excellent opportunity for first-time buyers and investors alike.

The accommodation is arranged over three floors and briefly comprises a fitted kitchen and lounge to the ground floor, a double bedroom and house bathroom to the first floor, together with a further spacious bedroom occupying the second floor.

The lower ground floor offers excellent versatility and has the potential to be utilised as a self-contained studio-style apartment, comprising an open-plan bedroom, living and kitchen area, together with a bathroom. This flexible space would be ideal for extended family, guest accommodation or, subject to any necessary consents, could offer additional rental potential.

Externally, the property benefits from a low-maintenance patio garden to the front.

Ideally positioned for Halifax town centre, local amenities, well-regarded schools and excellent commuter links, this property combines convenience with versatility and offers excellent potential for a variety of purchasers
