Offers Over £350,000

bramleys

Situated within the prestigious Ashgrove Estate, this beautifully presented three/four bedroom townhouse forms part of an exclusive courtyard development of just ten properties, set within approximately 40 acres of mature woodland and beautifully maintained parkland. Arranged over four floors, the property has been thoughtfully presented throughout and offers stylish, versatile accommodation including a superb open plan living dining kitchen, impressive principal bedroom with dressing room and spacious ensuite bathroom, and a versatile lower ground floor currently arranged as a cinema room, bar and home office space.

A particular feature is the property's south facing position, with the rear garden enjoying attractive views across the lake and surrounding parkland. The landscaped front forecourt provides an off-road parking space, with further parking available via an allocated space and separate garage. Combining a high standard of presentation with a peaceful semi-rural setting, the property is also conveniently positioned for the M62 motorway network, Leeds and Manchester.
