Tucked away on a quiet side street in the sought-after village of Clayton West, this charming stone-built cottage has been beautifully maintained and offers generous living space with high ceilings throughout. Externally, the home enjoys a private, low-maintenance south facing rear garden along with convenient roadside parking.

Clayton West is a vibrant village, well served by local amenities and surrounded by picturesque countryside walks. It is also ideally placed for commuters, benefiting from excellent public transport links, easy access to nearby towns, swift connections to the M1 motorway. Notably, this property is a stone's throw from highly regarded Kaye's primary school and nursery, the local park and within easy reach of further reputable local schools. This neatly presented three-bedroom end terrace is perfect for first-time buyers or growing families. Newly decorated and with newly fitted carpets throughout, together with a modern kitchen, means this property is ready to move into.
